

BERGERON
HOMES & DEVELOPMENT LLC

A FAMILY AFFAIR....

Founded in 1981 by Michael Bergeron, we are a family owned company that has earned a reputation of building excellence because we are known for our meticulous attention to details, from the beginning design to the final walk through, and for our commitment to placing the needs of customers first. Michael is a hands-on builder who visits job sites regularly and easy to contact for any questions.

Lori Bergeron adds her extensive experience in homebuilding, buying and selling to the team. Her knowledge and capabilities will only make your new home experience even easier. The couple's two children, Cody and Justin, are also involved in the company.

Elegance

Our teamwork provides the guidance and assistance that you require as you make choices that shape your house into your home. Each step of the way you will be informed of the progress of your dream home.

Customer service is our business. To ensure an outcome that is a source of pride and joy to all involved, we form a partnership with you that we hope one day becomes a friendship that will last a long time and possibly even result in another Bergeron-built home for you. Along the way, we hope it is filled with joy and exceeds your expectations.
